CITY IS SHOWN
IN ITS STORESIn Keeping With This Rule,
Rinehart's Drug Store Is an Institution Which Speaks
Well for the City.

The growth of a city can be determined by its places of business, and as an example of the recent growth of this city, one can refer to the drug store of C. E. Rinehart, located on Main street, opposite the postoffice building. When one enters this institution the fact that this city is a mining camp in Arizona is forgotten, as the interior of this store is equal to any drug store in any city of the United States, or even larger, in many cases.

Mr. Rinehart has been in the drug business in Bisbee for three years, his first location being where the present Citizen's Bank & Trust company is located, and which he disposed of two years ago last February. About two years ago he opened the drug store he now conducts, and much money and time has been expended in fitting up the new place. Mr. Rinehart feels that he has been well repaid for his confidence in Bisbee by the liberal patronage he has received and is receiving.

The entire interior is fitted in antique style, quarters and white oak, the most artistic effects being attained. The soda fountain located in the front of the store matches the woodwork and general style of the interior. The fountain is the first of its kind manufactured, being made by Mr. Rinehart's order, and thereby was named "the Arizona" by its makers. Tourists, business men, etc., from out of the city often commented on the artistic nature of the interior of the store, and in most cases are surprised to see such an elegant place of business in the "wild west."

The comfort of the patrons of the store has been one of the aims of Mr. Rinehart, and it can be said that he has succeeded in every way. The children also are considered, as tiny chairs and tables have been placed at their disposal.

The basement of the building is used as a store room and for manufacturing ice cream, a large quantity of which is used daily. The prescription department is complete in every detail, the stock of drugs and chemicals being most complete, thereby making it possible to compound any prescription, however rare its ingredients may be. Since the opening of the store, about twenty-two months ago, 8,367 prescriptions have been filled, notwithstanding the free dispensary of the mining companies.

To show the unique advertising methods pursued by Mr. Rinehart, he has placed on display a $500 piano which he will present to the customers who have purchased the largest amount of goods up to December 21, this is a rather expensive way of advertising and attracting business, but his persistency in securing business makes this appear a mere trifle from his view point.

It can truly be said that a city can be judged by its business institutions, when one considers the high standard attained by Mr. Rinehart in his place of business.

GIVEN NINETY DAYS.

John Duren stole a guitar and sold it for $1. He pleaded not guilty to the charge yesterday in Justice Burdick's court and was found guilty and given ninety days at Tombstone. Officer Twomey made the arrest. Duren has the reputation of being a bad "Hombre" and had been in trouble before. He is the Mexican who was severely cut in the neck a short time ago, and came near losing his life. He refused to tell who cut him.

M. DURKIN'S FUNERAL
WAS LARGELY ATTENDEDPioneer Miner Laid to Rest in Evergreen Cemetery—Services at Catholic Church.

The mortal remains of Michael Durkin were laid to rest yesterday afternoon, services being conducted over them by Rev. Father Mesner at St. Patrick's Catholic church. The services were largely attended, many old friends of the departed coming a long way to pay their respects. Among them were a number of old acquaintances from Tombstone and Cananea. Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

The sincerest regret was expressed in many places in southern Arizona when news of the death of Mike Durkin was received. He had a big heart and a manly soul. His ideas of life were along the right lines. He combined the rugged honesty of the pioneer mining men of Arizona and their characteristic good fellowship. His friendship was true as steel. As a husband and father he was idolized; as a citizen he was always active for the best interests of the community in which he happened to be.

Old friends, and there are many in this part of Arizona who knew him for twenty years and more, recall many instances where Mike Durkin went far out of his way to do a favor, and cite cases where his charitable heart often worked inconspicuously to help a fellow man.

SELECTION OF CANDIDATES BY
REPUBLICANSCaven Heads List—Hicks,
O'Laughlin and Scott On Roll—Holmes Chosen Chairman Central Committee.

The Republican city convention met last night in the council chambers at 8 o'clock. Frank O'Brien was chosen as chairman of the convention. Committees on credentials, organization and resolutions were immediately appointed, and as soon as they had made their reports, nominations were declared in order.

Dr. C. L. Caven was nominated by C. M. Holmes for mayor. He was elected by acclamation. The other nominations made were as follows: City marshal, J. J. O'Laughlin; city clerk, C. W. Hicks; street commissioner, Ed Scott. The following were nominated for aldermen: First ward, J. B. Anderson and Jake Smith; second ward, William Hughes and W. D. Kinsey; third ward, William Morris and E. A. Watkins. All were unanimously chosen.

The following resolutions were adopted by the convention. Be it resolved by the Republican delegates of Bisbee, Arizona, in convention assembled:

1. We heartily endorse and commend the able and efficient manner in which Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States, has guided and shaped the policies of the national administration during the last four years, and are desirous of seeing those policies carried out, along the lines laid down during the present administration by his successor.

2. That we congratulate the Republicans of the territory and the administration in particular for the good clean government during the past four years.
3. That our Republican county officials, namely, Joseph McCabe, supervisor, John White, sheriff, and J. A. Rockefeller, superintendent of schools, official acts are hereby endorsed by this convention. Their persistent and assiduous efforts on behalf of the constituents have earned the gratitude and hearty support of the Republicans of this city and the county at large.

4. That in the sense of this convention the Republican city administration under the guidance of the mayor, Dr. C. L. Caven, has been the most able and efficient that ever existed in the city of Bisbee; one that has reflected credit to us, not only throughout the city of Bisbee, but the territory at large.

We also especially commend the able manner in which C. W. Hicks, city clerk, has performed the duties of his office.

We also appreciate the faithful service and hearty plans and endorse the official acts of our Republican councilmen, W. E. Morris and Wm. Hughes.

The newly elected city central committee held at the city hall after the adjournment of the Republican city convention. C. M. Holmes, of the first ward was elected permanent chairman of the committee and E. P. Brewster, of the third ward was elected permanent secretary.

The candidates named by the city Republican convention met with the members of the new city central committee and discussed plans for the city campaign. The committee will meet next Monday night to perfect plans for the campaign, which they say will be vigorous.

The newly elected city central committee members chosen by the city Republican convention last night are:

First ward—C. M. Holmes, Sam Verran, Jr., C. H. Holz.
Second ward—E. A. Wittig, C. L. Jones, Roy Trotter.
Third ward—E. P. Brewster, H. W. Aitken, F. R. O'Brien.

In accepting the chairmanship of the central committee, C. M. Holmes made a rattling good little speech, as far as a Republican speech can be good, and promised energetic action in the interest of the party.

THE SOCIALIST
IN CONVENTIONFull List of Officers Placed in the Field and Platform Was Adopted With Some Rather Startling Planks.

About one hundred socialists, several of them women, crowded into Tammany Hall last night for the city nominating convention of that party. The meeting was called to order at 8:05 by A. C. Smith. Joseph D. Cannon was elected temporary chairman and A. C. Smith temporary secretary, both by acclamation.

The temporary organization was then made permanent. Chairman Cannon announced the following committees on credentials: First ward, K. C. McCutcheon; second ward, N. P. Olson; third ward, Frank Wilson. A recess was then taken until the credentials committee was ready to report. After a few minutes the committee reported the following delegates entitled to seats in the convention:

First ward—K. C. McCutcheon, J. J. Sullivan, Joseph D. Cannon.
Second ward—N. P. Olson, John N. Smith, Anthony Mott.
Third ward—A. C. Smith, Frank Wilson, Duke Simpson.

The report of the credentials committee was adopted. The chairman announced Messrs. Mott, Sullivan and Simpson as a committee on platform. The platform had already been agreed upon and printed. The printed copy, however, was submitted as the report of the committee, and formally adopted by unanimous vote.

The platform as adopted, after affirming allegiance to the principles of the Socialist party of Arizona, of America and to the international socialist movement, pledges the nominees of the convention to work for lower light and water rates in Bisbee, and in event of failure to secure same, to establish municipally owned and controlled light and water works. The same plank also demands a municipal ice plant.

The second plank demands the abolition of the contract system on public works and a minimum wage rate of $2.50 per day.

The third plank denounces the practice of the city making public improvements for the special benefit of corporations, and concludes with the words: "Time enough to build boulevards for our automobiles after we have constructed foot paths for our workers."

The fourth plank declares for the improvement of all streets and the creation of at least one public park.

The fifth plank denounces the municipal recognition of and partnership with prostitution by licensing the same. Plank six demands that police officers give more attention to criminals and cease the persecution of "penniless wage-earners." Plank seven is a declaration for the system of union organization championed by the Industrial Workers of the World.

Plank eight denounces the recent decisions of the judiciary against wage-earners and declares the "most unconstitutional wrong with which the American people have to contend at present is the judiciary as it is now constituted."

In closing the platform declares that the political parties of "penniless wage-earners" are no longer fit to administer the affairs of the people.

The following nominations were then made, all by acclamation. In fact, they had evidently been previously agreed upon, for they were all in print, with the platform, before the convention was called to order.

Mayor, Anthony Mott; city marshal, K. C. McCutcheon; city street supervisor, Dan McGowan; city clerk, C. O. White; councilmen, first ward, J. W. Wright, W. E. Stewart; councilmen second ward, John N. Smith, A. C. Smith; councilmen third ward, Frank Wilson, H. Tanner.

All the above candidates except Messrs. Wright, White and Tanner then signed the resignations required by the party from each of its candidates, with blank date, which resignations are held by the city central committee to insure the fidelity and tractability of the officials in case of election. The three exceptions noted above not being present, the city committee was instructed to secure their signatures.

The city central committee was also authorized to fill any vacancies occurring on the ticket.

Messrs. Walter Stewart, of the first ward, A. C. Smith, of the second and C. H. Tanner of the third were selected as the city central committee for the coming year.

The chairman was followed in a brief talk by J. N. Morrison of Benson.

METCALF IS BANQUETTED
BY GOVERNOR AND MAYOR

OAKLAND, May 2.—Secretary of the Navy Metcalf was honor guest tonight at a banquet given by the Oakland fleet reception committee in the Key Route Inn. Addresses were made by Secretary Metcalf, Mayor Mott and Governor Gillette.

YAGUIS EXTRADITED.

NOGALES, May 2.—The two Yaquis, Luciano Matus and Benito Matus, ordered extradited some time ago, were turned over to the Mexican authorities yesterday morning. They are wanted on the other side to answer for alleged participation in the murder of a gang of section men on the Sonora road last December. Their case has been pending for some time, serious effort being made to prevent their extradition. It is stated that G. B. Kelly, who represents the Singer Sewing machine at Nogales, saw one of the men at his home, sick, on the morning after the tragedy, and it is stated that Mrs. Kelly saw them both on the day of the murder. As the case of the Yaquis was sixty miles from here, this would seem to be evidence of a perfect alibi. Unfortunately this evidence was not adduced in the preliminary hearing of the defendants.

ADMIRAL R. D. EVANS
